HIGGINBOTHAM WAS JEALOUS OF GREEK STOREKEEPER

Actuated, no doubt, by jealousy of Tom Kardemes, a Greek groceryman of 584 Twenty-fourth street, because of his association with Mrs. Margaret Steinheuser of Salt Lake, J. E. Higginbotham addressed a letter to the Greek threatening his life if he did not immediately leave the city.

While the letter has not yet been shown to Higginbotham, a number of days ago the man voluntarily confessed that he had written it. He will likely not be prosecuted for this offense unless the state authorities should decide to file a complaint. The federal officers are not disposed to take up further cases except that they be found to come strictly under the law of using the mails to defraud. It is known that the relations of the Greek and Mrs. Steinheuser have been quite friendly and that Higginbotham was jealous of the Greek grocer. The letters to Mrs. Steinheuser were to the effect that if she did not do certain things, her relations with the Greek would be disclosed. It is known that the lady secured money from the Greek at one time by giving him a ring as security and that subsequently she borrowed the jewel and wore it for some time, later claiming to have lost it. The Greek had her placed in the hands of an officer until she made a settlement.

As a pretext for the letter, Higginbotham accused the Greek of sending to the penitentiary Eugene Bryant, the negro who burglarized his store some time ago and shot Officer John Murphy in the face while making his getaway. The fellow pleaded guilty to charges of burglary and assault with intent to murder and was sentenced to the state penitentiary for a term of ten years for the first offense and 30 years for the second. The letter was mailed August 22 and reads as follows:

"Greek, you was the cause of our friend going to the pen. He had a right in this country but you have none, but you will never send another there for if you are in Utah in 6 weeks you will be a dead man. His life is good as yours. If he cant have his we will get yours."

(Signed) "his friends." The handwriting is crude and uneven, and composition is not much better than that of a poor grade student. It was written with pen and ink on a small slip of paper. Higginbotham told the officers that he wrote the letter in a backhand way so as to disguise his writing as much as possible.

The letter addressed to Mrs. Steinheuser, September 25, was in the form of an invitation to come to Ogden and act as queen of a Greek carnival in honor of the king of Greece. It was signed in an anonymous Greek name. The second letter, however, was a threat in obscene language that if she did not keep away from the Greeks she would be exposed to her husband, but that if she would be good and leave them alone no harm would come to her.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Now for Christmas

Friday will mark the actual beginning of Christmas shopping. Of course, there has already been considerable Christmas shopping, but beginning Friday most of the toys will be ready, Christmas goods generally will be on display in all of the departments, and prudent shoppers will begin to take advantage of the first showings—the better assortments.

This year we will encourage early shopping by the most liberal "Lay-Away" plan. Our customers will have the privilege of making early selections and leaving the goods here until wanted.

Store Open Tonight and Closed All Day Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day these stores will be closed all day. In order to accommodate those who cannot shop during the day and who will want merchandise for Thanksgiving, our stores will remain open until nine o'clock tonight. All of those items advertised in the Thanksgiving Sale will be offered until closing time tonight.

FOUR DIVORCE CASES HOLD ATTENTION OF COURT

Samuel McClure has commenced suit for divorce in the district court against Frances McClure, charging desertion. The parties were married at Washington, D. C., February 28, 1903 and the defendant deserted her home November 1, 1912.

On the grounds of desertion, Chas. C. Slater has been granted a decree of divorce from Pearl Slater.

Lucy Lee, on her counterclaim, charging cruelty, has been released from the bonds of matrimony from J. M. Lee.

Ruth Marshall has been divorced from James B. Marshall because of his failure to provide.

LAST GAME OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON IN OGDEN

The American game of football makes its last 1913 appearance on Thanksgiving day.

In the east the battle between the Army and Navy is attracting the attention of all.

In the west the most important battle, in the eyes of Ogden followers, is the game between Granite and Ogden high schools.

Many proclaimed that the local boys last week would meet with another overwhelming defeat at the hands of Salt Lake high. But those who saw last Saturday's game, saw the Orange and Black go down in the most glorious defeat ever witnessed in Ogden. Salt Lake high had no trouble with Granite and after Ogden's splendid showing it is doubtful if we will either.

Coach Romney is confident. The team is confident and last but not least, the students are confident.

This afternoon a rousing assembly was held. Songs and yells were practiced, speeches were made. Ogden has had a fine season and the prospects are bright for next year.

The kickoff in the game tomorrow will be at 2:30 p. m.

After the game, the athletic dance will be given in the high school auditorium.

JACK TURNER GIVEN 75 DAYS IN JAIL BY REEDER

Judge Reeder's daily performance was so devoid of excitement this morning that part of his regular audience left before it was over. Jack Turner, the man who wanted to frame up a game of poker with J. H. White, and upon the latter's refusal to "see it," his way, bounced his fist on White's face, breaking that very important part of his unsuspecting victim's face, received a sentence of 75 days in jail. Jack was the only one on the calendar, however, to receive an invitation to Jailer Hagbert Anderson's Thanksgiving dinner.

The case against James Morgan, charged with having stolen goods in his possession, was dismissed, as was also the case of Herbert Salter, charged with assault.

Pete Williams, who was booked for vagrancy, forfeited $10 bail.

J. Morris, a sleeping drunk, was allowed to go with a five-day suspended sentence.

An interpreter was called in the case of George Drakos, a Greek, as neither of the officials are "up" on that language. Through the interpreter they learned why Drakos had been found without visible means of support and on his promise to take care not to let it happen again, Judge Reeder allowed him to go.

Sam Whitken, an employee of the Phoenix Construction company, was arrested, pleaded guilty, was lectured and discharged, all in the space of fifteen minutes, which is a somewhat quick justice. Whitken was arrested by Officer Reaser for leaving his team loose on the street.

Jesus Floris, a drunk, was given a five-day suspended sentence.

LOPEZ MAY BE IN AN ABANDONED MINE NEAR STOCKTON

Sheriff T. A. Devine of Ogden telephoned from Eureka this morning that he joined a party of men hunters in automobiles for the Cherry Creek country, which is about sixty miles west of Eureka, in search of Ralph Lopez, the bandit.

The sheriff stated that trace of the Mexican had been found in that direction and that the impression prevailed among the officers that the man's capture is certain.

The pursuers are all heavily armed and they can travel a long distance in a day over the desert country, which is not so rough but that an auto can be driven almost anywhere except in the mountain district.

Mr. Devine said the indications are that the Mexican has about 24 hours the start of the officers but that the machines will soon overcome the distance he could travel in that time.

Later indications are that Lopez has taken the back track and, instead of continuing toward the south or west from Tintic valley, has turned north and refuge in the great tunnel of the Honrine mine near Stockton, which is in the south part of Tooele valley.

Late this afternoon, it was learned that the man seen entering the Honrine tunnel was not Lopez.

AT HEADQUARTERS OF FOREST SERVICE IN OGDEN

Forest Supervisor James M. Ryan of Lamolite, Nev., is in Ogden to do detail work at the forest headquarters. He recently returned from Lemhi, Idaho.

Alfred Larson, former clerk in the Humboldt forest, Nevada, is conferring with District Forester E. A. Sherman as to again taking up the forest work. Mr. Larson has recently been engaged in the sheep business but now he is desirous of again entering in the forest service.

Beginning next week, detail work will be instituted in earnest at headquarters but this year supervisors will be required to spend only one week at the office. Last year they remained four weeks.

Mrs. Florence I. Shafer, geographer of the forest service, leaves today for Washington, D. C., where she will spend a month inspecting the view raphy department, with a view to making improvements in that department in Ogden. She will spend another thirty days visiting relatives in the east.
